INTRODUCTION

Today we made an ant theme park. We are going to show you some pictures of it.

Here is the entrance to a world of fun and ants.

Here is a map we created of our anty land!

Here is the restaurant in the anty land.

This is the awesome train ride that Bea created and loves!

This is a spooky house and as you can see there is a number of ghosts hanging from the ceiling and floor.

In this picture we are making the ghosts for the spooky house out of mud, holly and dirt.

Ghost making

How to make a ghost:

Firstly, you find a nice piece of holly. Next you find a thin stick and some watery, sticky mud. With your stick paint a face on your piece of holly with the mud. Then, hey presto you have a ghost.

This is the ant playground where ant children can have fun.

The little stones, with some imagination become a merry-go-round.

These are mounds where the ants can play. They can also live in them for a short period of time. If you look closely there is a woodlouse making its way to the mounds.

This is the bumper cars where ants can have fun bumping around in acorn cars!

This ant has come to the restaurant to have a tasty snack!
